About the members of Chaski

My name is Adrienne Inglis and my mother was from Venezuela and my father from California. I speak English and Spanish. I started piano lessons when I was six years old and flute when I was nine and practiced very hard. I studied music in college where I learned to play many other instruments. I live and play music in Austin, Texas.

My name is Shana Norton and I grew up in Kerrville, Texas, with my family and three horses, two cats, a baby goat, and a flock of chickens. I started playing piano when I was five and harp when I was a teenager. I live in Austin, Texas, and I play the harp in different orchestras.

My name is Dan Dickey and my family is a mixture of Native American and European. I have lived in different parts of Latin America and I lived in Peru for several years where I learned to play many native instruments. I teach Spanish in a school in Austin.
